NATIVE ENGLISH TEACHER

INTRODUCTION

I've been studying English both its language and literature for the entirety of my educational life and continue to enjoy doing so today. I'm looking for a job which aids me in stretching my abilities and enriching students with my knowledge whilst also helping me evolve as an educator. In the coming years I hope to see myself grow and continue to attain higher levels of knowledge whilst also building lasting impressions on those I'm able to have the pleasure of teaching.
