

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the English Instructor position at your institution. I am currently teaching at _____ in Gyeonggi-do, where I work with students aged 6–13, focusing on developing speaking confidence through interactive, discussion-based lessons. I conduct level assessments and provide individualized feedback to parents while maintaining a structured and engaging classroom environment.

Prior to teaching in Korea, I worked in Australia as a 3D Animation Supervisor, collaborating with educators to develop professional training materials. This experience strengthened my communication skills, project management abilities, and attention to educational quality — strengths I now apply to my teaching career.

My _____ is valid until the end of November. I will complete my current contract professionally, and my employer will provide the necessary documentation to support a smooth and compliant visa transfer process.

I am seeking a position where I can continue developing as an educator while contributing positively to students and the institution. I value professionalism, clear communication, and long-term commitment.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your team.

Sincerely,
William John Struthers
