

Hello,

I am writing to apply for a teaching position at your academy. With a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Psychology, and Philosophy, and 10 years of work experience, I believe I could make an immediate positive impact. I am highly enthusiastic about fostering a positive learning environment for your students.

While working as a Software Engineer and Product Designer in the US Technology industry, I worked on a number of education focused projects. I created a mobile app called LRN, that taught students around the world the fundamentals of programming. LRN was featured in Apple's App Store in 25+ countries as well as many media outlets. Additionally, I created Homeroom, a livestreaming platform for education. Homeroom's goal was to allow independent teachers to create an engaging remote learning community utilizing real-time video. I've always had an interest in education and am pursuing a role as an ESL teacher in Jungang. I have 1.5 years of experience teaching elementary and middle schoolers here in

Thank you for considering my application. I am extremely excited about the opportunity to contribute to the academic success and personal growth of your students. I am available for interviews. I have attached my resume for your review, and I look forward to the possibility of discussing my application with you further.

Sincerely,
