Dear Hiring Manager,

01 March, 2024

I am writing to inquire about positions available within your organization and provide you with my details for the application from your reputation as one of the leading language centers, I would have reason to understand that you are looking for a candidate who is deeply dedicated to education and is motivated to work closely with your students and staff to achieve whatever is necessary to provide high quality lessons and attain the best results for each lesson. I believe that that this makes me ideally suited for the job, with my reliable credentials and years of hands-on classroom experience, I am confident that I will be able to meet and exceed your expectations

In my previous roles in the ESL industry I performed the following duties :

- Led lessons for large groups of secondary and high school students (30-40) on a full time basis, working along with in school staff to create daily lesson plans, regular quizzes and tests, classroom games and role-play activities
- Led lessons in various language centers for groups of students (8-12), creating original lessons aimed at developing students all round English abilities with the use of interactive activities, exercises and presentations
- assisted students in online and offline IELTS and TOEIC lessons with planning, preparation, assessment of students, as well as attending on going training events as required by the company

Beyond my teaching experience and interpersonal skills I believe my enthusiasm makes me a perfect fit to serve as an English teacher under your company. I am excited by the prospect of working alongside your staff and administrators to help achieve success for your organization and students alike. I would enjoy discussing any further details and would be happy to provide any additional information if needed

sincerely,
