

Dear Hiring Director

My name is Ms _____ and I am writing to express my interest in the English Teacher position at your institution. I am a dedicated and passionate teacher with two years of teaching experience, and I am eager to continue my teaching career internationally.

Throughout my experience as an English teacher, I have developed strong skills in classroom management, lesson planning, and creating engaging learning environments that support students' academic growth and confidence in using English. I am committed to helping learners improve their reading, writing, speaking, and communication skills while encouraging creativity, participation, and respect in the classroom.

In my previous role, I worked with students from diverse backgrounds and focused on building inclusive and supportive learning experiences. I am patient, adaptable, hardworking, and enthusiastic about working in a new country where I can contribute positively to both students and the school community.

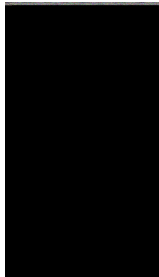

I am excited about the opportunity to bring my skills, dedication, and passion for education to your school. I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to discuss my application further and demonstrate how I can contribute to your institution.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Ms _____
