Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the full-time English teaching position currently advertised by your institution. With nearly two decades of cross-disciplinary experience in education and communications and almost 22 months of dedicated ESL teaching experience in South Korea, I am confident in my ability to make a meaningful contribution to your school's mission and learning environment.

Currently based in Masan, I bring hands-on experience instructing elementary and middle school learners (ages 7–15). Before this, I completed a successful year as an ESL teacher in Busan through the English Program In Korea (EPIK) program. Across both public and private school settings, I have demonstrated success in delivering student-centred lessons using Communicative Language Teaching (CLT) and Task-Based Learning (TBL) methodologies. My classrooms are dynamic, interactive, and culturally responsive and are designed to nurture fluency, confidence, and curiosity.

As a native English speaker from South Africa, I hold a Bachelor's degree in Political Studies from the University of Pretoria and a 120-hour TEFL/TESOL certification. In addition to my instructional expertise, I offer excellent communication skills, strong curriculum development abilities, and a commitment to creating inclusive, engaging learning environments.

I would be honored to bring my experience, adaptability, and energy to your team. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you and share more about how I can support your students' growth and success.

I have attached my resume, teaching philosophy for your attention.

Sincerely,

Bomikazi Nkolongwane (Miss)
