RELATED WORK EXPERIENCE

DUX, Godeok Branch 2025-present (contract ends at the end of August)

Taught English to middle and high school students with a focus on literature, essay writing and speaking. Classes were designed for the students to gain a deeper understanding of English literature in order to be able to analyze them and write proper, well-structured essays. Speaking was conducted in a debate oriented focus. Taught students how to formulate well made arguments and counter arguments in order to defend their opinion.

Taught English to elementary school students of various levels with a focus on reading, writing, and speaking skills. Delivered engaging lessons tailored to improve their fluency, comprehension, and communication. Assisted students in building confidence and achieving their academic and personal language goals.

Just Speak () 2018

Helping with conversation skills. After, I became the manager and oversaw finding new teachers. I helped the new workers prepare their classes and often assisted them to make sure their classes were done properly. During that time, I also had 3 private students to whom I taught English.

L-Zone () 2016

Worked in an English academy that focused on conversation skills. Was responsible for helping students practice their English and helped beginners with grammar courses and conversations, that way they could use what they learned during the grammar course in real life scenarios.
