

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL TEACHER

May 7, 2026

Dear Hiring Manager,

As an elementary educator with a proven track record of driving measurable student growth in both the United States and South Korea, I am writing to express my strong interest in the posted teaching position. Having previously spent three years teaching in _____, I developed a deep respect for Korean educational culture. I am eager to return to South Korea to contribute my expertise in early literacy and differentiated instruction to your school community.

Currently, as a first-grade teacher in North Carolina's Wake County Public Schools, I specialize in foundational skill-building. Last year, I achieved a 100% success rate for students meeting or exceeding end-of-year reading benchmarks. This was accomplished through systematic phonics instruction and data-driven progress monitoring. My commitment to instructional excellence led to my nomination by administration for the Wake County Beginning Teacher of the Year award—an honor reflecting my dedication to student engagement and classroom management.

My previous experience in _____ across kindergarten and elementary, levels has made me a highly adaptable educator for English Language Learners (ELL). I pride myself on creating inclusive environments where students feel confident taking the risks necessary for language acquisition. Additionally, my background in staff management—supervising a team of 20—has equipped me with the professional accountability and collaborative communication skills essential for a high-functioning faculty.

I am excited about the possibility of bringing my international perspective and results-oriented teaching approach back to _____. Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the possibility of discussing how my background aligns with the needs of your students.

Sincerely,

Andrew Holsinger
