

Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Dayzsane (Day), and I am an experienced English teacher currently teaching in South Korea on an E-2 visa. I am writing to express my interest in English teaching positions starting in March 2026.

I have experience teaching kindergarten, elementary, and middle school students, including after-school programs across all levels. Throughout my teaching roles, I have independently planned and delivered engaging lessons, created teaching materials and assessments, written student evaluations and progress reports, and maintained effective classroom management. I am also experienced in communicating with parents and guardians regarding student progress.

I am adaptable, organized, and comfortable teaching a range of age groups and proficiency levels. I take pride in creating a positive and structured classroom environment while supporting students' language development and confidence in English.

My current position is ending due to low student enrollment, and a release letter will be provided. I am available for interviews and would be happy to provide my resume and supporting documents upon request.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my skills and experience may be a good fit for your school.

Sincerely,
Dayzsane (Day)
