Dear Hiring Manager,

I hope all is well with you.

I am writing to express my interest in the ESL teaching position posted. I am currently teaching in South Korea, where my contract concludes at the end of September 2026, and I am seeking my next opportunity to continue growing as an educator.

I have been teaching English at Dux Academy in Gwangju for the past year, where students ranged from the ages 6 to 12. Curriculum was provided, however, I used my skills to supplement the curriculum with other activities, to improve the reading, writing, and speaking of students. The classroom environment I like to encourage is fun and interactive, in order to keep students engaged, and motivated to learn. I find continuous encouragement and compliments when due, as well as a reward system, like stickers to collect for a prize, usually push students to do their best and grasp knowledge more effectively and efficiently.

I genuinely enjoy working with children and supporting their academic and personal growth. My naturally energetic and approachable personality ensures I build a good rapport with all students of all ages, while maintaining a respectful and positive classroom environment.

Thank you for considering my application. I would welcome the opportunity to further discuss how my experience and skills could positively contribute to your school. I look forward to hearing from you.

Best Regards

Pamela Mangcotywa
