

Katherine N. Fernandes

Kfernandes1@twu.edu

Nationality: American

F6 Visa

Profile

- Experience as teacher aid in formal and informal setting
- Experience teaching kids in a group as well as one-on-one
- Experience working with young children
- Experience with curriculum building
- Experience working with people who speak a foreign language
- Familiar with working with students and adults with special needs

Education

Texas Woman's University
Bachelor of Science

Denton, Texas
History

August 2018
Graduated in three years with cum laude honor.

Experience

Teacher

June 2024-Present

Milestone Institute
Banpo

- Full time
- Teach 1st through 6th grade
- Writing progress reports for each student
- Teaching writing, reading, and speaking skills
- Awarded Teacher of the Month and Teacher of the Semester

Teacher

March 2022-March 2024

Chungdahm
Gangnam

- Full time
- Homeroom teacher to 5 year old class
- Writing progress reports for each student
- Teaching writing, reading, and speaking skills
- Curriculum writing and planning

Head Teacher

October 2020-March 2022

DOCS

Gwangmyeong, South Korea

- Full time
- Teaching English to students ages 5-16 (Korean age)
- Writing tests
- Writing progress reports for each student
- Teaching writing, reading, and speaking skills

Teacher

Spring 2019-Spring 2020

Green International Kindergarten

Suzhou, China

- Full time
- Teaching English to young learners
- Develop weekly lesson plans and gather resources

Tutor

Fall 2018-Spring 2019

Huntington Learning Center

Coppell, TX

- Part time; after school hours
- Supervising and assisting students engaged in independent study as well as Working both one-to-one . Working with one-to-one with students requires practicing reading, writing, and math; these students commonly have learning or behavioral disabilities.
- Student ages ranging from 5 to 18.
- Mainly assisting with writing and grammar
- Detailed record keeping for student assessment and general progress

Intern as Library Summer Program Coordinator

Summer 2016 & 2017

AmeriCorps VISTA

Arlington, TX Public Library

- Full time; traveling between library branches
- Working both one-to-one and in groups with children on reading and writing skills
- Assisting with coordinating and executing library promotion events and summer program events
- Cataloguing skills

Academic Achievement/ Certificates

Phi Theta Kappa Member

2017

Honor society for community college students

Phi Alpha Theta

2018

History honor society

Board Member for Ibid.

2018

Member on board of editors for TWU history department's academic journal

TEFL Certified

2018

Certified to teach English as a foreign language; over 200 hours of course education with specialization in teaching young learners