Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the English teacher position. As an educator with teaching experience in South Korea and a strong passion for education, I believe I would be an excellent addition to your school.

During my time at Pohang Poeun Middle School, I developed strong skills in classroom management, lesson planning, and student engagement. I developed and delivered over fifty lesson plans per semester for over five hundred and fifty middle school students, adapting instruction to meet a wide range of English proficiency levels and learning styles. Through this experience, I worked to build a positive classroom environment where students felt encouraged to participate and communicate in English.

My passion for creating engaging lesson plans, combined with my communication skills, will allow me to effectively collaborate with colleagues and students. As a detail-oriented teacher, I strive to develop lessons that not only meet educational goals but also engage students, keeping them interested, motivated, and actively involved in the learning process. I believe these strengths help foster a productive classroom atmosphere where students feel supported as they grow in confidence and ability.

I am eager to bring my dedication, adaptability, and collaborative mindset to this role. I am confident that my enthusiasm for education and commitment to student success align well with the goals of your school.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to bring my energy and dedication to your school and support the growth of your learners.

Yours sincerely,

Kathryn Anne Orozco
