

IAN DOYLE

English Teacher | TEFL Certified

PERSONAL DETAILS

---

Birth: Ireland / 2000
Citizenship: Irish
English Ability: Native Speaker
Marital Status: Single
Health: Excellent

EDUCATION

---

|              |                                                                                                            |                        |
|--------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------|
| 2023:        | TESOL/TESL/TEFL Certification (120 Hours)                                                           | Dublin, Ireland |
| 2023:        | TEFL Young Learners Certification (30 Hours)                                                        | Dublin, Ireland |
| 2018 - 2022: | Honors Bachelor of ArtsMajor: Commercial Modern MusicTechnological University Dublin | Dublin Ireland  |

WORK HISTORY

---

|                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                             |
|-----------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| March 2024 - 2025:    | Homeroom Teacher, Francis Parker Collegiate                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Bucheon, South Korea |
|                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Taught full-immersion English to 5-year-olds in speaking, phonics, and early writing</li><li>• Planned and delivered lessons using engaging, age-appropriate materials</li><li>• Promoted learning through games, crafts, and songs</li><li>• Maintained strong parent communication and monthly progress reports</li></ul>                                                                                      |                             |
| March 2025 - 2026:    | Homeroom Teacher, Francis Parker Collegiate                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Dongtan, South Korea |
|                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Taught the highest-level 7-year-old class using American textbooks</li><li>• Focused on advanced grammar, complex conjunctions, and academic writing</li><li>• Lead full-immersion subject classes including Art, Math, Science, and Drama</li><li>• Prepared students for elementary-level expectations through project-based learning</li></ul>                                                                |                             |
| March 2026 - Present: | Homeroom Teacher, Francis Parker Collegiate                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Songdo, South Korea  |
|                       | <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Differentiate teaching styles to support mixed-ability learners in reading and writing contexts</li><li>• Establish structured classroom routines to build strong working habits at the start of the school year</li><li>• Cooperate with Korean co-teacher to establish consistent classroom expectations and routines</li><li>• Teach a full class of 6-year-olds in immersion and academic subjects</li></ul> |                             |

ADDITIONAL SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

---

Languages: English (Fluent)
Interests: Songwriting, Traveling, Exercising
Skills: Creativity, Teamwork, Organization, Writing

REFERENCES

---

Available upon request