

Nathan Mullen

Objective

Recent History and Politics graduate (2:1) from University College Dublin with strong analytical, research, and communication skills. Experienced in customer service and operational roles, demonstrating teamwork, problem-solving, and adaptability under pressure. Motivated to apply critical thinking, interpersonal skills, and a strong work ethic in a dynamic graduate role

Experience

Sales Assistant - Sports Direct

Sept 2022 – June 2025

- Advised customers on product choices, ensuring high levels of satisfaction.
- Maintained stock accuracy and store presentation, improving efficiency.
- Worked effectively under pressure during peak retail

General Operative — Kemmlit, Germany

June 2022 – Aug 2022

- Assembled cleanroom furniture and organized materials methodically.
- Developed practical, hands-on skills while maintaining high-quality standards.

Crew Member — Five Guys

Sept 2021 – Apr 2022

- Worked across multiple restaurant functions, demonstrating flexibility and teamwork.
- Resolved customer complaints effectively, ensuring repeat business.
- Maintained cleanliness and upheld strict food safety standards.

General Operative — The City Bin Co.

June 2021 – Aug 2021

- Supported waste collection services across Dublin in a physically demanding role.
 - Built strong time management and teamwork
-

Education

University College Dublin
— BA History & Politics

2021 – 2025

Graduated with 2:1
(Second-Class Honors)

Level 5 Diploma in Teaching English as a foreign Language (TEFL)

Highfield Qualifications/
the TEFL Institute, 2025

Skills

- Teamwork
- Communication
- Problem solving
- Time management
- Research & Analysis
- Writing

Interests

- Team Sports
- Individual Sports
- Photography
- Travel

Contact

13 Templeroan Downs,
Knocklyon, Dublin 16

0870951992

Nathanmullen100@gmail.com