

Personal Details

Name: Lorena Laniti

Personal Summary

People-focused professional with experience across hospitality, customer support, and English teaching in international environments. Strong communicator with a calm, empathetic approach, skilled in problem-solving, organisation, and delivering high-quality service under pressure. Adaptable, reliable, and confident working with diverse clients, students, and teams.

Experience

eToro:

Customer support agent (May 2024 - current, Limassol, Cyprus)

- Provide high-quality customer support via email, assisting clients with account management, verification, and general platform enquiries.
- Handle customer requests relating to deposits, withdrawals, trading activity, and account-related issues across stocks, crypto, and other financial instruments.
- Investigate and resolve complex cases by analysing account activity, transaction history, and platform behaviour.
- Collaborate closely with internal departments including Finance, Compliance, and Technical teams to ensure timely and accurate case resolution.
- Deliver clear, professional communication while managing multiple cases efficiently.

Kpax Marketing/SkillOnNet:

Customer support agent (November 2023 - May 2024, Limassol, Cyprus)

- Provided customer support via live chat, email, and phone for online casino platforms, ensuring prompt and professional assistance.

- Assisted players with account management, verification, deposits, withdrawals, bonuses, and promotions.
- Handled payment-related enquiries and escalated financial issues when required.
- Guided players through platform navigation, gameplay features, and account settings.
- Investigated and resolved customer issues by reviewing account activity and transaction history.
- Collaborated with internal departments to resolve technical, payment, and compliance-related cases efficiently.

Best Prep Academy:

English Teacher (October 2022 - October 2023, Gyeonggi-do, South Korea)

- Creating full-lesson plans and term schedules
- Writing monthly comments and record keeping of behavior and educational progress
- Proctoring level tests for enrolment
- Teaching English to individuals ranging from beginner to advanced
- Teaching elementary children, ages 8-13 years
- Teaching various lessons including listening, grammar, reading, speaking, novel, and essay writing

IN2 English School:

English Teacher (September 2021- September 2022, Gyeonggi-do, South Korea)

- Planning, preparing, and delivering lessons
- Helping students improve their listening, speaking, and writing in individual and group sessions
- Checking and assessing student's work and providing feedback
- Supervision of children's behavior both outside and inside the classroom
- Assessing the abilities of new students through level testing
- Professionally evaluating the strengths, weaknesses, and progression of pupils for monthly report cards
- Keeping a record of student's attendance and grades
- Working and communicating with international staff as well as domestic Korean staff as part of a faculty team

Alasia Boutique hotel

Receptionist (Limassol, Cyprus 2017)

- Managed front desk responsibilities, providing a warm and professional welcome to hotel guests.
- Handled guest check-ins and check-outs, reservations, and payment processing accurately and efficiently.
- Responded to guest enquiries in person, by phone, and via email, ensuring a high standard of customer service.
- Coordinated with housekeeping, maintenance, and management teams to support smooth daily hotel operations.

- Maintained accurate guest records, booking details, and billing information within the hotel management system.

Education

1. Health Science BSc at University of The People (Remote - California, U.S)
2. Oakland's College - Level 3 Business (Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire, England)
3. Oakland's College - Level 2 Health and Social Care (Welwyn Garden City, Hertfordshire, England)
4. Level 5 TEFL 180-hour course (I-to-I) UK