

Dear Hiring Manager,

My name is Katerina Rekow, and I am applying for an English teaching position in South Korea. I hold a Bachelor of Science degree in Molecular Biology and have completed my TEFL certification. I am currently living in Seoul, where I have been studying Korean at Yonsei University and becoming familiar with the culture and educational environment.

I have over five years of experience teaching piano to students from kindergarten through high school. I have taught both private one-on-one lessons and group classes. Through this experience, I developed structured lesson plans, maintained clear expectations, and guided students toward meaningful and engaging learning experiences.

I have also gained valuable experience managing student behavior in a positive and effective way. By closely tracking student progress, I am able to understand individual strengths and areas for improvement, and provide targeted support.

In addition, my five years of experience in a managerial role, while also being a full-time college student, strengthened my communication, organization, and teamwork skills in a fast-paced environment.

I am passionate about teaching and find it very rewarding to help students build confidence and improve their skills. I am confident that my experience and adaptability will allow me to contribute positively to your school.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to speak with you.

Sincerely,

Katerina Rekow