

ANNETTE A. QUANSAH

SUMMARY

Creatively driven Native English Teacher with over 1 to 2 years of English teaching experience. Enthusiastic in cultivating an engaging English learning environment and increasing confidence in elementary level learners. Highly adaptable and dedicated to creating English learning materials and activities. Experienced in classroom management and establishment of objectives. Proficient in Canva, Microsoft Office, and Google Suite.

EDUCATION

Bachelor's degree
Agnes Scott College,

May 2021
Master's degree
Emory University,

May 2023

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Native English Teacher

| August 2024 – present

Native English teacher at . Fostered measurable confidence in English speaking amongst elementary level students through engaging classes and curated learning materials.

- Created custom learning materials and activities for third through fifth grade English classes.
- Taught English to two hundred elementary students.
- Collaborated with co-teachers on planning and setting classroom objectives.
- Fostered an engaging and comfortable English learning environment for students.
- Designed custom winter and summer camp themes and activities to increase student learning and participation.
- Independently led English after school classes for first and second grade students.
- Participated in a Gangjin office of Education led Winter Camp for Gangjin wide elementary students.

SKILLS

Lesson planning
Materials development
Classroom management
Canva
Microsoft Office
Google Suite

CERTIFICATES

TESOL 150 hours
Arizona State University,
USA
June 2024