

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted], Gyeongsangbuk-do,

Republic of Korea

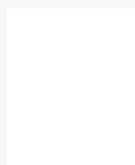

y interest in the English teacher position. As an educator e in South Korea and a strong passion for education, I cellent addition to your school.

ool [Redacted], I developed strong skills in , lesson planning, and student engagement. I developed esson plans per semester for over five hundred and fifty adapting instruction to meet a wide range of English arning styles. Through this experience, I worked to build a nment where students felt encouraged to participate glish.

engaging lesson plans, combined with my allow me to effectively collaborate with colleagues and nted teacher, I strive to develop lessons that not only but also engage students, keeping them interested, involved in the learning process. I believe these strengths classroom atmosphere where students feel supported as and ability.

edication, adaptability, and collaborative mindset to this my enthusiasm for education and commitment to ill with the goals of your school.

g my application. I look forward to the opportunity to dication to your school and support the growth of your

Drozco
