

English Teacher

I am a friendly and dedicated English teacher currently teaching in South Korea, with nearly one year of experience working with young learners. I have a Bachelor’s degree in Behavioural Science (Majoring in Psychology & Sociology) and a 120-hour TEFL certificate. I really enjoy working with children and creating fun, engaging lessons that help them feel confident using English. I’m someone who is flexible but also values structure in the classroom, and I always try to create a positive and supportive learning environment.
