

- Dual R.O.K. and U.S.A. citizen (no work visa required)

EDUCATION

Williams College | Graduated June 2025 | 3.8 GPA

B.A. in History and Developmental Psychology, Asian Studies Concentration

- Awards: Herbert H. Lehm Scholar for dedication to community service, Class of 1957 Scholar for success in campus leadership and academic achievement, Psychology Class of 1960 Scholar for high-achieving majors
- Related Coursework and Projects: Introduction to Statistical Modeling, Developmental Psychology, Psychology of Education, Statistics for Psychology Research, Early Experience and Developing Inf., Cognitive Science, Children's Math Learning

TEACHING & ADVISING EXPERIENCE

U.S. Fulbright Program

English Teaching Assistant

Yil, Taiwan

Aug. 2025—present

- Completed 60 hours of TESOL training and a month-long teacher training in phonics instruction, cultural adaptation, classroom management, etc.
- Instruct English at two rural, indigenous elementary schools to roughly 100 students total 5 days a week
- Design lessons plans and games to practice sentence patterns, phonics, and vocabulary through translanguaging and content-based instruction approaches

Williams College '68 Center for Career

Peer Career Advisor

Feb. 2023—June 2025

- Lead the curriculum development team to create networking + resume + cover letter guides and workshops targeted to focus groups such as freshmen, first-generation students, international students, etc.
- Assist Career Directors in staffing job fairs, professional development, training sessions, and networking events
- Initiated Peer Advisor headshot program through which students can obtain quality headshots for free

Department of English at Williams

Teaching Assistant for ENGL 113: Feminist Poetry Movement

Aug. 2022 – Dec. 2024

- Collaborated with the professor and with 19 students one-on-one to answer questions about class materials, writing concerns, and poetry analyses
- Assisted domestic and international students through the demands of college-level writing for 4 hours a week

Pittsfield Public School

Civics Support and Curriculum Development Intern

Jan. & Summer 2022

- Implemented the Harvard Democratic Knowledge Project, a curriculum developed and overseen by the Harvard Graduate School of Education, for 8th-grade civics course and guided students throughout the development of their service projects
- Designed and organized project planners for students and faculty to track student progress in developing long-term community service projects
- Consulted with the principal of Herberg Middle School to create accessible, engaging curriculum for students at all performance levels
- Structured projects and curriculum to align with the school curriculum and lessons in STEM, Social Studies, Art, etc.

Williamstown Elementary School Outreach

Classroom Helper and Student Leader

Oct 2021 – June 2025

- Supported a teacher 4-8 hours a week in a 6th and 2nd-grade classroom by grading assignments, enhancing critical thinking within students, and creating a supportive learning environment
- Organized professional development events and sent communication emails to classroom assistants

SKILLS & ASSETS

- Languages: Native English, Fluent Korean, Intermediate Spanish, Beginner Mandarin
- Skills: Basic computer skills (PowerPoint, Word, SharePoint, Excel.), proficient knowledge of Hindenburg (audio editing software), Adobe Premiere Pro, R software proficiency, SPSS software proficiency, statistical modeling and data analysis