Greetings

I am _____, excited to apply for the Teaching Position, I'm an intermediate phase teacher, located in Durban, I'm trading in my comfort zone for a new adventure abroad, South African seeking full time employment in teaching English abroad with English being one of my majors and second language.

I have teaching experience and a passion for cultural exchange, I'm confident I'd thrive in this role. I'm excited to bring my energy and creativity. My experience working with diverse students have prepared me to contribute to your school's mission. I'm eager to bring innovative teaching methods and enthusiasm to your team.

When I'm not geeking out over lesson plans, I love trying new foods, exploring local spots, and learning about different cultures. I think this mix of enthusiasm and experience would make me a great fit for your team, I'd love to discuss how I can make a difference at your school, Thanks for considering my application.

Best regards,
