

NATALIN HAJI

Patient educator with experience supporting diverse learner and newcomer, aiming to teach English in South Korea while promoting cultural exchange and helping student achieve language proficiency.

EDUCATION

Honour Bachelor of Arts in Sociology (2020-2025)

-
- Fluent in English (Native)
- Lesson Planning and Activity Design
- Student Engagement and Support
- Cross-Cultural Communication
- Strong Verbal and Written Communication
- Organization and Time

- Team Collaboration
- Basic Technology

CERTIFICATION

- TEFL Certification (120 Hours) – The TEFL Academy
- Standard First Aid & CPR

- Supported newcomer student with little or no English by helping them understand lesson and routine
- Helped manage behaviour and maintain a positive learning environment
- Prepared material and supported small group learning

COMPASS COMMUNITY HEALTH – HAMILTON, ONTARIO

Pathway Program Support, September 2025 – Present

- Supported youth in developing life, goal setting, and educational planning
- Provided one-on-one tutoring and guidance to help student adjust to high school
- Assisted student with homework, study strategies, and academic skill building
- Encouraged and supported student to plan for post-secondary education and career pathway
- Connected youth with community resource and support service

IMMIGRANT WORKING CENTRE – HAMILTON, ONTARIO

Omali Interpreter April 2022 – January 2023

- Assisted omali-speaking newcomer with navigating healthcare, education, and community service
- Translated and interpreted conversation between client and service provider accurately and confidentially
- Supported client in understanding form, application, and legal document
- Helped bridge cultural and language gap to ensure effective communication and support
- Contributed to workshop and community program to assist newcomer integration