PROFILE

I am a warm, energetic and passionate early childhood educator with a background in psychology and 120-hour TEFL. I admire working with young learners where I create fun,engaging lessons that help children feel excited about learning English. I use methods like phonics, chants, games storytelling and role play to make lessons interactive and easy to understand which creates a fun learning space. I have a good understanding of child development and I believe in creating a supportive, inclusive classroom where they feel confident and comfortable to learn English
