

Dear Hiring Manager,

Good day. I am writing to express my strong interest in applying for an English Teacher position at your esteemed institution.

I am a licensed professional teacher with over eight (8) years of teaching experience in both public and private institutions, including my current role as a Foreign Language Teacher in Thailand. I hold a Bachelor of Secondary Education majoring in English and have earned 33 units in a Master of Arts in Teaching English. Additionally, I am TESOL-certified, which has strengthened my ability to teach English to diverse learners.

In my current position, I deliver communicative and student-centered lessons to learners with limited English proficiency. I design engaging lesson plans, use interactive strategies such as games and role-playing, and adapt materials to meet students' needs. My teaching experience has also allowed me to handle learners, coach students in competitions, and contribute to improved academic performance.

I am passionate about creating a positive, inclusive, and dynamic learning environment where students feel confident using English. I bring strong classroom management skills, cultural adaptability, and a commitment to continuous professional growth.

I am eager to contribute my skills and experience to your institution and support the development of your students. I would welcome the opportunity to further discuss how I can be a valuable member of your teaching team.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.

Warm regards,

ORLAN QUIAO RENTUZA
