Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in a full-time teaching position as an English teacher in South Korea. I believe that my background in linguistics, TESOL training, and teaching experience make me a strong candidate for this role.

I recently graduated at California State University, Fullerton with a Bachelor's degree in Linguistics, as well as obtained a TESOL certificate. I also have three years of experience tutoring elementary students. Through this work, I developed the ability to adapt lessons for diverse learning styles, maintain an encouraging class environment, and help little kids express their creative thoughts.

I am especially interested in teaching in Korea because I spent a year studying abroad at the University of [Redacted]—an experience that strengthened my connection to the culture and solidified my desire to pursue my dream career in Korea. Returning to [Redacted] to teach would be a meaningful continuation of that journey.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration. I would welcome any opportunity to further discuss how my experience and enthusiasm can contribute to this position.

Sincerely,
